

THURSDAY 12 NOVEMBER

Day Chair - William Meadows, President, The Wilderness Society, USA

0900 – 0920	PHOTOGRAPHY KEYNOTE Tom Mangelsen -Window into North America
0920 – 1045	WILDERNESS AND PEOPLE I – SOCIAL ISSUES, CONSERVATION SOLUTIONS Joel Holtrop , Deputy Chief, USDA Forest Service – Involving the Public in Wilderness and Conservation Pinky Khondlo , Wilderness Foundation, South Africa – The Umzi Wethu -- Wilderness, Training and Jobs for AIDs Orphans Dr Ian McCallum - - Writer, psychologist; wilderness guide; Director, Leadership and Education Projects , Wilderness Foundation, South Africa; In the Tracks of Giants Jo Roberts , Director, Wilderness Foundation, UK; Duncan Alistair Little , Northern Ireland; Humanizing the Enemy: Wilderness and Peace Building.
1045– 1115	REFRESHMENTS
1115 – 1240	WILDERNESS AND PEOPLE II – A NEW AGRICULTURE FOR WILDERNESS AND CLIMATE CHANGE Moderator -- JAMES MOSELEY (Former) Deputy Secretary, Department of Agriculture, USA FATHER THEODORE HESBURGH , President Emeritus, Notre Dame University CHRIS DOWSWELL Executive Director Sasakawa Africa Association DANIEL SHERRARD , Provost, Earth University, Costa Rica; VÍCTOR URGILES , Student, EARTH University, Costa Rica
1240-1300	William Meadows , President, The Wilderness Society, USA; From the Alaska National Wildlife Refuge to Mexico - National Lessons in Implementing Wilderness Protection
1300 – 1430	LUNCH IN EXPOSITION HALL

1430 – 1800	CONCURRENT SESSIONS
1800 – 2000	FREE TIME
2000 – 2200	EVENING EVENT - BODY PAINTING - WILD NATURE AND THE ANCIENT ART Hacienda Tekit de Regil, Merida (transport will be provided) An artistic exploration, in gallery format, applies the ancient art of body decoration to the cause of protecting wild nature.